

Welcome, students!

EDUCATION WEDNESDAYS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Education Wednesdays offer current students, teachers and staff from Chautauqua County schools (K–12) a free gate pass (7 a.m.–midnight). Bring your current school I.D. card to receive free entry to Chautauqua Institution's grounds including access to all events at the Amphitheater. Youth 12 and under also have free access EVERY DAY.

YOUNG READERS PROGRAM 12:30 p.m. • Locations vary

You're invited to participate in the CLSC Young Readers program. This program is open to youth ages 9–14, and reading the week's selected book is encouraged but not required to attend!

Visit chq.org/young-readers for the book list.

POETRY MAKERSPACE Open daily • Colonnade Building

Flex your creative muscles and make a poem in the Poetry Makerspace featuring the Traveling Stanzas interactive exhibit, part of an exciting new project with Kent State University's Wick Poetry Center. For hours and other information, visit poetrymakerspace.chq.org.

Wick Poetry Center
College of Arts and Sciences

GALLERY TOUR FOR YOUTH 11 a.m. • Fowler-Kellogg Art Center

Students in grades 4–12 are invited to learn about and explore Chautauqua's visual art galleries. Guided tours of the exhibits are available by appointment only. Chaperones must accompany those in grades 4–8. Contact youth@chq.org to reserve your space or with questions. Tours are limited to 15 students each week.

STANZAS ON THE PLAZA 4:30 p.m. • Colonnade Building Porch

Share your Makerspace poem in a welcoming, intergenerational setting — or just enjoy summer treats as you listen to poems read by your friends!

GROUPS

If you would like to bring a group of students to Chautauqua this summer, let us help! Contact our Youth Activities Coordinator at youth@chq.org for more information.

$10 YOUTH OPERA TICKET

Bring the family to see Chautauqua Opera Company's Candide in Norton Hall on July 27 or 30. Youth ticket requires accompanying purchase of at least one full-price adult ticket.

Please call 716-357-6250 for details or visit opera.chq.org.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT SERIES

These performances appeal to family members of all ages providing fun, interactive entertainment ranging from music to mime, puppetry, dance and much more.

FREE:

Chautauqua Theater Company: Young Playwrights!*

June 26 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Ellis Paul: "The Hero in You"

July 10 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Chautauqua Opera's The Bremen Town Musicians

July 17 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Kathakaar

July 31 at 5 & 7 p.m. | Smith Wilkes Hall

Chautauqua Regional Youth Ballet*

Aug. 14 at 6 p.m. | Elizabeth S. Lenna Hall

Free for all ages! Request a complimentary pass at the Main Gate Welcome Center that is valid for entry to the grounds one hour prior to curtain time to one hour after. Parking is $9 per vehicle.

*Sponsored by DFT Communications, Partners in Technology

REDUCED-PRICE:

Cirque Montage†

July 3 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater

The Peking Acrobats†

July 25 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater
Education Wednesday free pass may be used by those who qualify.

Theatre of Varieties†

Aug. 7 at 7:30 p.m. | Amphitheater

$20 ticket. Children 12 and under are always free. Pass valid for entry to the grounds from 4 p.m.–midnight. Parking is $9 per vehicle.

†Sponsored by Kathy and Jim Pender and the Michael Pender Memorial Fund of the Cleveland Foundation

For more information or to order tickets, call 716-357-6250 or visit chq.org

CHAUTAUQUA INSTITUTION • CHAUTAUQUA, NEW YORK

Welcome, teachers!

EDUCATION WEDNESDAYS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Education Wednesdays offer current students, teachers and staff from Chautauqua County schools (K–12) a free gate pass (7 a.m.–midnight). Bring your current school I.D. card to receive free entry to Chautauqua Institution's grounds including access to all events at the Amphitheater. Retired teachers who show an I.D. for the Southern Chautauqua County Retired Teachers Association are also eligible to participate in Education Wednesdays thanks to a grant from the Lillian Brink Education Fund.

MORNING LECTURES 10:45 a.m. • Amphitheater

Ideas and opinions are exchanged in an open, challenging atmosphere, and Chautauqua's audiences have the opportunity to participate in Q-and-A sessions at the conclusion of the daily lectures.

Visit chq.org/lectures for weekly theme descriptions and the full lineup of speakers!

INTERFAITH LECTURES 2 p.m. • Hall of Philosophy

The Interfaith Lecture Series is designed to present issues that impact the lived experience of everyday life from theological, religious, spiritual, ethical and humanitarian perspectives.

ENTERTAINMENT 8:15 p.m. • Amphitheater

Our evening entertainment events feature a dynamic mix of artists, musicians, entertainers and speakers, and attract crowds to our 4,400-seat, open-air Amphitheater.

Visit chq.org/season/arts-entertainment for the full lineup of entertainment!

On FREE Admission Sundays enjoy:

- Beautiful beaches
- Chautauqua Bookstore open 7 a.m.–9 p.m.
- Waterfront recreation at the Sports Club (rent kayaks, canoes, paddleboats and motor boats; play free cornhole and other activities)
- Smith Memorial Library open 12–3 p.m.
- Denominational Houses worship at 9:30 a.m. Locations vary.
- Worship service in the Amp at 10:45 a.m.
- Art galleries open 1–5 p.m.
- Performances in the Amp at 2:30 p.m.
- Writers' Center Readings in the Hall of Philosophy at 3:30 p.m.
- Vespers in the Hall of Philosophy at 5 p.m.
- Sacred Song Service in the Amp at 8 p.m.

Free day pass (7 a.m.–10 p.m.)
Free parking (7 a.m.–2 p.m.)

SPECIAL STUDIES

Special Studies offers classes to youth and adults in subjects ranging from art, music, photography, culinary arts, religion and philosophy, to fitness, dance, history, literature and writing. Enjoy Chautauqua's Special Studies' unique learning experience and enrich your mind, body and spirit.

Visit chq.org/classes for more details, pricing and to register! (Or, apply to teach a Special Studies course next summer.)

GROUPS

If you would like to bring a group of students to Chautauqua this summer, let us help! Contact our Youth Activities Coordinator at youth@chq.org for more information.

SPECIAL OFFER FROM THE CHAUTAUQUA BOOKSTORE

Show your Chautauqua County school or employee I.D. at the bookstore to receive 10% off your entire purchase on Education Wednesdays at Chautauqua!

Limit one discount per customer, per visit. Cannot be combined with other coupons or offers.

For more information or to order tickets, call 716-357-6250 or visit chq.org

CHAUTAUQUA INSTITUTION • CHAUTAUQUA, NEW YORK